I

Handwritten musical score for a piece marked Allegro. The score is written on ten staves. The first two staves are for a treble and bass clef pair, with a brace on the left. The remaining eight staves are for a grand staff (treble and bass clef pairs). The music is in 3/4 time and features various note values, rests, and accidentals. A large 'I' is written above the first staff. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

Fin. 3. mag. auctor

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, likely a concluding phrase or a separate section. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation includes several eighth and sixteenth notes, followed by a double bar line and a final chord. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

Handwritten musical score on a single page of aged paper. The page is numbered "12" in the top right corner. The music is written on ten staves. The first six staves contain a complex piece of music with various notes, rests, and accidentals. The seventh staff begins with a double bar line and two repeat signs (double dots and double vertical lines), followed by the handwritten text "Segue la seconda Parte" in cursive. The remaining three staves are empty.

Handwritten musical score on a single page, featuring ten staves of music. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is written in a fluid, cursive style typical of 18th-century manuscripts. The final staff of the piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs. There are some handwritten annotations in blue ink, including "tr." above a trill and "layol" above a passage in the eighth staff.
